GENTRAL WASHINGTON STATE GOLLEGE

1963 HYAKEM

VOLUME XLII

FOREWORD

■ The 1963 HYAKEM's theme is Growth, Progress and Development here on Central's Campus.
Central Washington State College had a higher enrollment than ever before in 1962-1963 with a total of 2650 students attending fall quarter. Men's dorms were overcrowded and facilities were inadequate until the New Men's Dorm was completed section by section and finally completely occupied. Problems arose with Central's New Commons but soon, with all of the grills and equipment installed, the food lines moved with ease.
The new additions to the Classroom Building and old library will soon be completed and students may go to classes without hearing hammers, drills, and saws. ■ Yes, Central is developing, funds are being raised by the SGA for carillon bells that will be played on the hour, keeping uniform time on campus. These should be installed next fall. New dorms are already on the drawing board. In the near future there will be a two million dollar dorm built which will house one wing of women students and a wing of men students.

Central Washington State College is truly Growing, Developing and Progressing.

DEDICATION

DR. SAMUELSON

■ The 1963 HYAKEM is dedicated to Dr. Emil E. Samuelson, Dean of Students, who through thirty-one years of service has come to be affectionately known to Central students as "Dr. Sam." Samuelson was born in Port Wing, Wisconsin and served in the Student Army Training Corps in 1918 during World War I. He received his B.A. in 1925 and his M.A. and Ph. D. degrees in 1932 at the University of Wisconsin. ■ In 1932, "Dr. Sam" came to Central as Director of Student Personnel Services, Placement Director, and head of the Department of Education. open to students with problems, students who want advice or students who just want to come in and talk about things in general is "Dr. Sam's" office. His smile is friendly and his greeting is warm. His manner is never "rushed." Busy as he is, he always has time to help a student.

"Dr. Sam" and his wife are friends-in-aforeign land to a host of foreign students and do everything possible to see that the students from abroad adjust easily to American ways.

"Dr. Sam" is active in the Kiwanis Club (Lt. Gov. of Kiwanis 1959-1960), American Association of University Professors, American Personnel Guidance Association, Red Cross, United Good Neighbors, National Education Association, Kappa Delta Pi, and Phi Delta Kappa. He was the recipient of the Silver Beaver Boy Scout Award, and most recently, received a gold Honor Key for distinguished service to the field of education as a member of Kappa Delta Pi. His interests are many: traveling, bird classifying, fishing, following college athletics, playing handball, listening to classical music; but his major interest is and will continue to be the education and future happiness of Central's college students.

WE DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO YOU, "DR. SAM." . . .

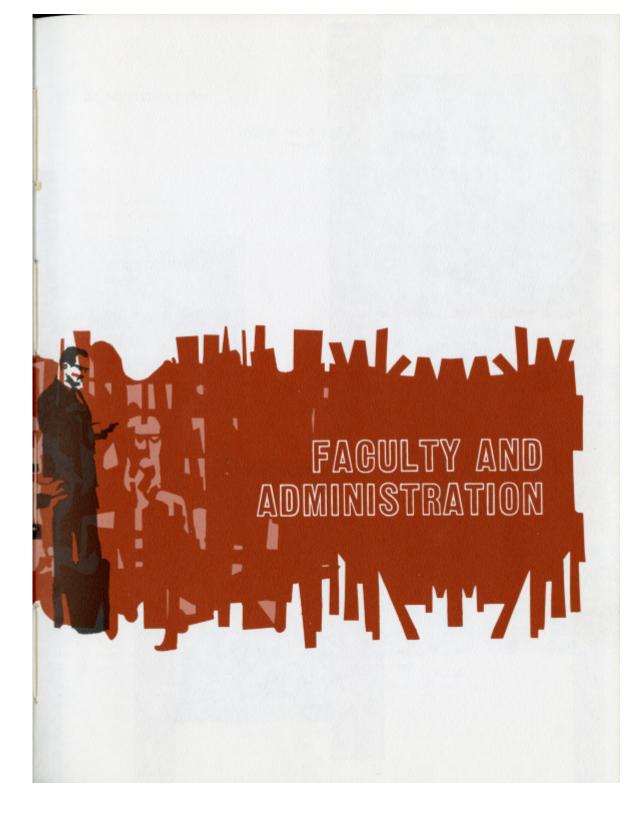

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

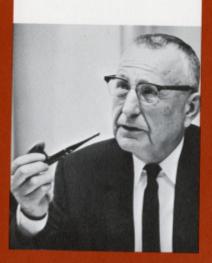

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

■ Growth and development, the theme of this year's Hyakem, tell the story of our life at Central during this, the college's greatest year of expansion. ■ In reviewing our present college year, just now drawing to a close, we look back upon an exciting period of change. To meet the needs of a constantly growing student body, our college has had to enlarge and improve in all areas: physical plant, faculty and staff, services, programs, and organization. We have finished new buildings, started others and have our drawing boards filled with plans for more. The curriculum has undergone extensive revision and many new programs are in the offing. The faculty has been increased in size and has improved in quality. College services have been added. The administrative and academic structure has been completely revised. ■ Of most importance, however, has been the continued growth of the intellectual aspect of our campus. Students have given the faculty and administration great assistance in elevating the of the intellectual aspect of our campus. Students have given the faculty and administration great assistance in elevating the college to new levels of intellectual maturity. This cooperative action and the strengthening of the Student Government Association are, in my estimation, the highlights of our 1962-63 year. At the end of this, my second year as president of your college, I am happy to greet the students of Central, to congratulate you an your successful year and to look forward with you to exciting days to come in the life of this college.

■ Increasing students' political awareness has been a major goal of the SGA. Several political speakers have informed students of the vital issues of our nation, state, and community. The addition of a fifth executive, the inclusion of the Student Planning Council within the constitution, and a strengthening of Honor Council procedures will pave the way for a stronger association. The "Speaker in the Union" program has again proven its worth by offering students the opportunity to listen to a variety of speeches.

■ With the ratification of a new constitution, the Student Government Association can look forward to increased activity and service to students within the coming years. Listed are a number of projects the S.G.A. is promoting: the creation of a solid international-student program; the establishment of a "sister" university; the organization of a campus humanities program; the abolishment of compulsory R.O.T.C., plus growth in the area of Union programming.

S G A COUNCIL

NSA

■ National Student's Association made its debut on Central's compus in the Spring of 1962. Central is one of 400 colleges in the United States belonging to this association. Since the time of organization, NSA has completed a housing survey, brought a representative from the Peace Corps, and sponsored WUS Week. Pictured left are Jim Mattis and Kathy Drebick who spent many hours organizing NSA on our campus.

■ Central's band made outstanding performances this year at the football games and concerts.

■ The band members took their annual band tour during Winter Quarter. Under the direction of Bert Christenson the band spent a good deal of time in practice sessions and as a result was able to produce some very fine entertainment for the campus.

A. BERT CHRISTENSON

CENTRAL

- Under the direction of Dr. Wayne Hertz, the Central Singers worked all year to blend their voices.
- Fall quarter found them rehearsing for their Christmas program which this year was "The Elijah" by Mendelssohn. Michael Haberman, Paul Piersall, Virginia Brand, Suzanne Peterson and Susan Erickson were the featured soloists.
- Winter quarter they prepared for their Spring tour. The program of music used on the tour was first presented on campus in a special concert. All audiences were impressed and enthusiastic about their presentation.

FOOTBALL

■ The Central Wildcats started off the 1962 football season with a real bang. Coach Adrian Beamer's men whipped Whitman College in their inaugural tilt 21-0, and continued to whitewash opposition, as they blanketed P. L. U. 25-0. After a hard fought 6-6 tie with Western, the roof momentarily fell in on the Cats when the U. P. S. Loggers took a 9-6 victory. The roof continued to fall as the Whitworth Pirates dealt the Cats their worst defeat of the season, 32-0. Fortunes picked up for Central during Homecoming, as it clobbered the Eastern Savages 32-3 in the annual homecoming game at Ellensburg. The Cats next journied "over the hill" to tangle with P. L. U., and came home on the short end of a 20-6 score. But revenge was gained the next week as they beat rival Western 21-14 before the home town fans. In the season finale, Central met Willamette and the final score was 13-6. Three Cats were picked by the Evergreen Conference coaches to the all-league team. Those bonored were Phil Fitterer, Arnie Tyler and Dick Shannon.

- Central's hoopsters enjayed a winning season this past winter with 14 victories against 10 losses. The Cats had an eight win, three loss non-conference record, a four win, six loss record in conference play, and won two, lost one in the annual Evergreen Conference Tournament. The Cats finished fourth in the league race and won third place in the tournament. Coach Leo Nicholson's squad started out the season with eight wins in its first 11 games. However, injuries and scholastic difficulties hit the squad at the end of the first quarter. Dale Hall, Harold Riggan, Jim Clifton, three starters, were out with injuries during much of the league competition. The Cats seemed to rebound as the season neared its end; the three returned to action, winning five victories in their last seven games.

 The peaceury captain gward went to Harold Riggan. Most inspirational
- The honorary captain award went to Harold Riggan. Most inspirational player award was given to Jim Clifton. Ron Olney was given the "Mr. Hustle" award.
- The leading scorer was Olney who averaged 13.7 points a game. Riggan was next, hitting for an average of 12.8 points per game. Olney led the squad in the rebounding department collecting 255. Brad Wilson was next in line with 192.
- With Wilson being the only senior on the squad, the prospects for next year look bright. Central's entire starting unit of Olney, Riggan, Clifton, Hall and Moawad will be back along with Roger Buss and Jerry Cote who, along with Wilson, led the reserve strength.
- Coach Leo Nicholson completed 34 years of coaching at Central this past season. He has also served as football coach, track coach, and tennis mentor during his many years on the Central campus.

SWIMMING

■ Central's swimming team splashed to the best record in the history of the sport on the Ellensburg campus this past winter. ■ Under the coaching of Tom Anderson, the Cats wan six meets and lost four. In the annual Evergreen Conference Swimming Meet, the Cats swam to second place. Pacing the Central Swimmers were Trent Jonas, who amassed 96.75 points during the season. He was followed closely by Duane Bangs with 95.50 and John Galbraith with 92.50. ■ Eleven school records were broken during the season, out of a total of 13 events. Galbraith holds five records and Jonas has possession of four. ■ The members of the team elected Duane Bangs as the team captain. Bill Dendurent was given the inspirational award by his teammates. ■ Special recognition should be given to Coach Anderson, who, in his first year at Central, did an outstanding job. Much credit for the attendance at the home meets, which far exceeded that of any other school in the conference, is due to Coach Anderson. ■ The outlook for the next two or three years is bright as the only seniors on the squad were Bangs and Duane McEneny. John Coach is the only junior and the rest of the squad was made up of freshmen and sophomores.

WRESTLING

■ Central's wrestlers wan the state wrestling championship among the colleges and universities in Washington state this past winter. To add frosting to the cake, the Wildcats placed third in the annual Pacific Coast Wrestling Tournament. Gerald George, Central's fine sophomore, was the Pacific Coast champ in the 147 pound class. Ken Salyer and LeRoy Johnson finished in the runner up positions in their weight divisions, and Don Parham placed fifth in the heavyweight class. Coach Eric Beardsley's grapplers ended the regular season with nine victories, three losses, and two ties, for the best record in the three year history of the sport at Central. ■ The highlight of the regular season was the Cats' 16-11 victory over the University of Washington Huskies when over 1800 fans swarmed into Nicholson Pavilion to witness the event. The consensus was that it was a bigger crowd than the Pacific Coast Wrestling Tournament draws to its annual event. Central had faught to a 15-15 draw with the Huskies earlier in the season in Seattle to mar the Cats' otherwise perfect record against every college in Washington state.

■ Overall, the Cat wrestlers won 90 matches, lost 46 and faught to seven draws. When one considers the competition Central faced, this record is particularly outstanding, and is a compellment to Coach Beardsley's fine skill and the effort put forth by the wrestling team. Central was led by freshman Joel Burke, who won 16 matches and lost one. George followed Burke with 10 wins, one loss, and one draw. ■ With Salyer the only senior on the squad, the outlook is very bright for next year.

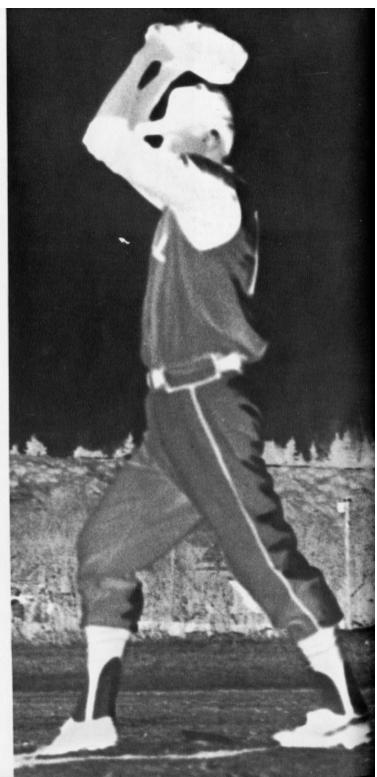

Disploying trophies from the Pacific Coast Most are: Ken Salyer, Gerald George, and LeRay Johnson.

BASEBALL

■ Central Baseball coach Jim Nylander had six lettermen among the twenty-three men on the varsity squad. They included catcher Art Ellis, pitchers Ken Anderson, Kim Morgan, Jim Clifton, first baseman Jim Parker and outfielder Bill Seraile.
The remaining roster included: first basemen Rod Gillman, Bob Werner and Doyle Hille, second basemen Joe Miller, Bob Moawad and Dale Lambert, Shortstops: Larry Shider and Dick Sieverson. Third basemen: Tom Berndt, Dave Klarich and Roger Ottmar. Outfielders: Tom Boars and Gary Hutteball. Catchers: Chuck Wood and John Jameson. Pitchers: Tom Tarbox and Jim Saari. Seraile, Werner and Ellis also played in the outfield.

Central played in the Eastern Division of the Evergreen Conference, with Eastern and Whitworth, Western, the University of Puget Sound and Pacific Lutheran University comprising the Western Division. Each team played the schools in its division four times in conference play, and the winners of each division played off for the league championship.

Whitworth seemed likely to be the team to beat in the East, while Western looked equally strong in the Western Division.

TENNIS

■ The Central Washington tennis squad had seven home matches scheduled on its 14-match agenda. All 14 matches were practice affairs. The Evergreen Conference tennis champion was crowned at the annual conference tournament, which was held this year at Eastern Washington. All six schools in the Evergreen Conference, plus Whitman College, Seattle Pacific College and St. Martin's College would compete in the NAIA District No. 1 play-off, held at Whitman College. ■ Tennis coach Dr. Everett Irish had four managram winners among the 13 men on the varsity squad. They were Colin Hergert, David Crum, Scott McCabe and Jim Zagelow. The remaining members included John Epley, Serge Grant, Jerry Cote, Ken Ball, Bob Preston, Theron Margan, Kay Chin, Gary Burras and Jerry Potterf. ■ Coach Irish felt that Eastern Washington, Western Washington and the University of Puget Sound were the teams to beat in the Evergreen Conference, while Whitman would be very strong in the district.

TRACK

Boosted by the return of 16 lettermen, Central track squad had high hopes in early March of retaining the Evergreen Track Championship. ■ Among the returning lettermen, Coach A. D. "Bink" Beamer greeted Jack Curtwright, who tied for third place in the National NAIA pole vault competition and John Karas, who placed sixth in the javelin in the National NAIA meet last year. ■ Other lettermen included Tom Buckner and Gary Thompson in the sprints, Bill Talbert, Tony Clark, Dick Seraile, and Jim Mecklenburg, in the 440, Mike Veak in the 880, Martin Rudow in the distance, John Anderson and Jay Lane in the hurdles, Curtwright in the pole vault, David Olson and Gary Luft in the broad jump, Olson and Fred Beckwith in the high jump, Don Parham in the discus and Karas in the javelin.

■ Outstanding freshmen included Leonard Lloyd, who placed second in both hurdle events at the high school state meet last year, and Gene Triplett, who pole vaulted 13' 6" in high school. ■ The Cats had three dual meets scheduled for Ellensburg during the spring. The first was on April 6 when they hosted Western Washington. The other two were with Whitworth and Partland State College.

"NIGHT OF THE AUK"

- The winter quarter drama production was the controversial play, "The Night of the Auk." The play was written by Arch Oboler and directed and designed by Milo Smith.

 The five man cast enacted the entire three acts on a space ship returning from the moon. These men watched the pride of one of their own destroy an entire civilization.

 The playwright says of his play, "This is a play of abstraction, of suggestion, of free-soaring prose; it is of darkness, and of struggle, and of soaring human spirits and degraded ones."

Fred Hammock watches as a control panel goes haywire.

S G A ELECTION

The highlight of the 1963 SGA Election was the nominating convention held on January 22-23. The exciting convention was opened by the convention chairman Mick Barrus, and a keynote address was given by Dr. James Brooks. The two colorful and dramatic evenings were filled with the usual order of nominations and acceptance speeches.
Enthusiastic delegates provided the convention with a delightful band,
appropriate songs, posters, and noise.
A touch of humor was added with the nominations of Lotta Doe and Miss Monica Umbershoot (an umbrella) The nominees listed on the ballot were as follows: Pres. Jim Mattis and Bob Moawad; Executive
V.P. Jim Fielder and John Shroeder;
Social V.P. Roger Gray and Dale
Lambert; Sec. Michelle Hilke and Linda
Mahler, and Treas. Soren Sorenson.
Mattis, Fielder, Gray, Mahler, and Sorenson were victorious in this successful SGA Election.

"Our candidate is well spread!"

"I repeat with vigah," said Jim Mattis.

THE FOUR PREPS

■ The Four Preps appeared on the CWSC campus Fall quarter. Their album "The Four Preps on Campus" promoted many college appearances across the nation. Their scheduled performance here was almost cancelled due to airplane difficulties. After a layover in Spokane for plane repairs, the group arrived same two hours late, but in spite of this, the Preps "brought the house down" with their antics and good music.

ENTERTAINMENT

WILLIAM WARFIELD

■ Acclaimed around the world as one of the greatest vocal artists of today, William Warfield who sang "OI" Man River" in the movie version of "Show Boat," appeared on Central's campus Winter quarter. Warfield, also renowned for his appearance in the lead in "Pargy and Bess," received a standing ovation from the mixed college and community audience.

■ During Winter quarter Arlene Flynn, a noted folk singer, appeared with a host of college students participating in an evening of folksinging.
Miss Flynn has performed before many college audiences and has worked in various places in San Francisco and Seattle. The program for the evening included not only songs by Miss Flynn and a trio that is now under her direction but also several college students.

ARLENE FLYNN

■ More big name entertainment hit Central's compus when the Smothers Brothers, a comedy and singing duo, appeared in an SGA spansared show Winter quarter. The brothers, who got their start on the old Jack Paar Tonight show, have appeared in several night clubs and college campuses around the country.

. . . IN CLOSING

■ The last page of the 1963 HYAKEM is to say "thank you" to the many people who helped to make this book a success. ■ We, as editors, felt that no matter how hard we tried we could not give complete coverage of the year in a book with so little space to cover so much.

■ Special thanks to Miss Bonnie Wiley, our advisor, for her aid and patience throughout the year. ■ To Fred Haberland and Dan Eisenman our photographers, we say "thanks" for doing all those rush jobs. ■ Thank you, Craftsman Press, for printing our book on time and for your aid and advice.

■ Now, the "thank-you's" have been said and the 1962-1963 year draws to a close. The HYAKEM, a Chinook word meaning "quick to tell" has told you as much as possible in this short amount of time. ■ With this last page, the 1963 HYAKEM closes.
